“ Although it was nearly 20 years ago when I saw Mrs Yu last time while visiting Sydney with my family, I shall never forget the friendship built up between her, Mable's mother, Eric's Auntie and my mother when they shared news and giggles waiting for us when we finished kindergarten and primary school at NMC. On behalf of my parents and I , many thanks for the friendship and lovely memories.

“ Mrs. Tso Kwong Tsui Yu (our beloved Yu Mama): the loving, highly intelligent, & courageous mother of my best friend Denise; an embodiment of compassion, understanding, sensitivities & perseverance.

I first met Yu Mama when Denise and I were 4th graders. Yu Mama welcomed close friends of Denise into her home, but would always discipline us whenever she deemed necessary.

I came to know more about Yu Mama when my family and I first came to live in Sydney in 1987. Many a day, Yu Mama would keep my toddler son and I company at our homes and to supermarkets. She satisfied my husband's cravings of hometown food by making dumplings at dinners specially for him. Both their families came from Shangtung. She shared her life story with me - how she, in her 40s, had to look after the family as well as the late Mr. Yu's business when he lost part of his mobility; and how she had tried to settle in a new city much larger than Hong Kong, speaking a language unfamiliar to her.

Yu Mama had lived a life of love through service to her family and friends!

Yu Mama, your life has shown us what real love is! You will be greatly missed!

于媽媽，您遺愛人間！我們永遠懷念您！
