“ Our deepest condolences to Dear Aunty Lily and family. Uncle Wilfred was a faithful servant of Christ and he has indeed walked the race victoriously. Praise God that he is at home with The Lord now.

We are thankful that we were able to be with Uncle Wilfred in August 2023 and shared some tender moments. He surprised us by expressing himself through Chinese calligraphy to us.

This with other memories we shared with him, will be dearly missed and fondly remembered.

Love, Wai Yip, Lee fan, Lee Git and Jit Lin

“ Dearest Lily and family, my sincere condolences to you for Rev Chee's passing. The Lord has blessed us with a faithful and joyous servant. I will always remember the twinkle of adventure in his eyes and his enthusiasm for travelling. There was never a concern on his face, even with a million spam and scam mails in his inbox; always soldiering on positively and resolute to live life to the fullest. I pray that you will be sustained in the meantime and mourn with assured hope. Grace and peace.

“ In memory of Rev Wilfred Chee. Wilfred is a kind mentor, spiritual father, always with a cheerful and genuine smile, approachable, enjoyed fellowship with us and liked sharing his life stories through his photo album. We treasure every moment we come together. We appreciate Wilfred and Lily for their support and company walking with us on the rugged path in previous years and giving us a model of being a good pastor. Dear Wilfred, you will be in our hearts forever. Kenny and Winnie

Dear Lilly, Denise, and family
We are so sorry to hear of your loss of Wilfred who was such a beautiful, caring, and loving and compassionate, committed man of God.
We will always remember our first meeting with Wilfred and Lilly at Sabah when we were sent on a mission from Shrewsbury, England. And although we didn't see much of each other, we all became good friends ever since.
We always looked forward to hearing Wilfred's Christmas news letter about what he and Lilly had been doing and the family. We also enjoyed their visits to us which were very special and a little time spent with their family in Carmarthen, Wales too.
Wilfred will be greatly missed but never forgotten.

“ Rev Chee’s cheerful smile will be dearly missed by us. Thank God for knowing him and Lily who care for us as their son & daughter. Not only invited us a few times to have meal with them, they even kindly put off the wedding banquet for our registration. Thanks for his generosity to support me and encourage me in my journey to follow the Lord and always want to share his life memories with us. May he rest in peace in the Father’s arms and may the Lord bring comfort and peace to Lily and the rest of families.

“ Our heartfelt condolences go out to Mrs Lily Chee and family. We are able to visit Rev Chee on our visit to Sydney last August. We have breakfast together at the nursing home. He was smiling and enjoying the Dim Sum. What a fond memory of him. Rev Chee was my Rector during his serving at St Michael's Church, Sandakan in the year of 1997.

“ In 2010, I got to know Rev. Chee when he was appointed to serve as the Chinese Congregation's "transitional basis" leader at St. Paul Anglican Church Carlingford. The fact that I have encountered a remarkable, holy man who had lived a life so fully devoted to God in Christ is truly a blessing. He was still joyful and always had a brave smile on his face in the nursing home, even though his life was coming to an end.

From 2012 till 2018, I prepared the powerpoint presentation for Rev. Chee's sermon. As a result, I was always the first one to "listen" to his sermons even before he spoke from the pulpit, which why I was so gracious. There were a few times I was unable to contain my tears since the sermons were so moving with passions, soul loving, encouraging with life witnesses, testimony and experience with God.

Dear Wilfred, we miss you so much but we all for sure know you are now with God.

REST IN PEACE.

“ Gong Gong was a strong-willed and resilient man, an inspiration to me and my two siblings throughout our lives. He was generous, considerate, loving, cheerful and happy to humour our constant ramblings and badgering. I pray that our Gong Gong will find his long deserved peace and wish him a happy departure.

I will forever remeber Gong Gong and the way that he has supported and loved us. I remember him to be full of joy and kindness which was a blessing to us all. His resilience and commitment to the family will always be admirable. I especially thank God for the way that he served people and lived his life for God. He lived a very fulfilled life and I now pray that he will rest in peace with God.

“听到牧师安息主怀的消息后，搜了一下邮件，发现最后一次听朱牧师在华恩堂讲道已是八年以前。原以为经过近三千日日夜夜的洗涤，很难再记得什么。闭上眼睛，把悲伤安顿，脑海里开始浮现点点滴滴的回忆——朱牧师高大的身影，他每次讲道穿着西装笔挺的身影，以及在16年最后那次牧师讲完道后，颤颤巍巍走下讲台的那让人心酸的一幕。再回想，记起来牧师祷告时喜欢说的一句话，“让你的话语成为我们脚前的灯，路上的光，让我们听见你在我们耳旁那细小的声音”。写这篇短文时，忽然又记起朱牧师曾经分享他年轻时在大学时，室友和他传福音的一些趣事。这些点点滴滴仿佛融汇成了一幅画，让人看到从弱冠到耄耋，朱牧师把生命献给了主。最后用邮件里搜到8年前年牧师的讲道的一些话语来结束吧。

“在我們的生活中，道德教育或許也可以結出少許的果子，不過這樣的果子似乎像是塑膠人造的果子一樣，人看了覺得很美麗，只是放在那裡裝飾而已。”

“我們在地上是一個罪人，在耶穌基督白白恩典的面前，相信的人就可以得到。人用戰戰兢兢的心來到上帝面前，就是我們要下決心，我們走上帝這條路，自然不要再犯罪。我們應該在這個世上來行好，這個好行為是基督徒應該做的。聖經裡面不斷的教導我們要成為多結果子的人，是要用那些好行為來勝過那些壞行為。我們離開這些壞行為來注目看耶穌，我們就可以得到一個新的生命，也可以成為一位受祝福的人。”

“ I used to be Pastor Cher's carer. He was very friendly to everyone around him. We even played table tennis together. He often had a childlike smile, which I miss him very much.

“ It is deeply sad to know that our dear Rev. Chee has passed away. When we visited you in nursing home earlier this year, you were very excited to tell us that you would take a cruise trip to China and would see us when stopping-by Hong Kong later this year. Although we understand that it won't come true, we do hope that you are able to travel around and enjoy life together with Mrs Chee as long as you can. You are such a wonderful and kind pastor that we have ever met. You have spent your whole life to serve God and also to enlighten others. We miss you so much. You always live in our heart...Rest in Peace!

“ Dear Rev. Chee,
You are not gone! You are closer to god and closer to our hearts.
We remember you faithful to god, loving the family, kind and care to friends and touched so many people’s life! You are my mentor and model to deal with sickness, appreciate the loving care received and enjoying life to the final day on earth!
We miss you dearly!

“ Wilfred is one of the most gentle persons I have ever met. We missed him from attending the Anglican Chinese Clergy Fellowship due to immobility in his later years. I remember he played his accordion at one of the Christmas parties held by the fellowship. On 16 March 2023, Magdalene and I visited Wilfred at the nursing home. He requested me to sing "Shanghai Beach", a piece of music that he used for his line dancing class. What a memory. Rest in peace Wilfred.

我所敬愛的朱牧師

隔著南北半球，看著照片端詳著您的容顏，思緒飛回52年前的牧愛堂牧師館裡.....

那時我們才受洗沒多久，分發到台北教書，主日總是搭著1.5小時公車來到牧愛堂，有時在牧師館過夜，您用襪子球為我們打天花板上的蚊子，您總是用愛心接待我們這些游子，最令我難忘的一幕是，您為我們講述掃羅在大馬士革遇見主的神蹟。

您的興奮神情烙印在我心靈深處，時隔半世紀仍歷歷在目。

您是好牧人，您愛護羊兒們，感謝上帝讓我們在初信時遇見您，這是神的大恩典。讚美上帝的大慈愛！

深信

您已經得著那不能朽壞
的榮耀的冠冕，
在天父 那兒安享永恆

我永遠懷念您 他日天家再會

From Bishop Stephen Soe and all of us in the Anglican Diocese of West Malaysia:

Our sincere condolences and Sympathies to Lily and the family for the demise of the late Rev Dr Wilfred Chee, who was ordained in DWM back in 70's, he served well in St Paul's Church Petaling Jaya, in order to reach out to the local Chinese he was sent to Taiwan to learn Chinese Language and continue his ministry upon return from Taiwan until he moved to Australia. Nevertheless he kept good relationship with us by visiting churches in our diocese whenever he can. May his soul rest in peace and rise in glory.
