“ Uncle William has lived a beautiful life. He indeed has been a role model to me: his zest for life, his grit for work, his positive and humorous personality. He has taught me how to stand tall and be confident. He has shown me how to preserve and live a meaningful life.

Be prepared to tell me more jokes when we meet again in heaven, Uncle William!

“ My heart is saddened as I heard the passing away of our dear Uncle William. He was such a kind and caring uncle. I was especially close to him in my growing up. I still remembered vividly all his jokes and humour.

He came over to LA to visit Grandma, Uncles and Aunts while I was studying in university. After I graduated and returned to HK to work, he was also working in HK at that time. During the weekends, Uncle and I spent lots of time together going shopping, dining, hiking, playing mahjong and even singing karaoke! In recent years, I visited him and his family in Sydney a few times. They all treated us with great feasts and hospitality.

It's sad to see his health deteriorate as the years went by. We are assured that he rests in peace in heaven now. I want to take this opportunity to give special honour to Aunt Debbie, devoted wife of Uncle William, who spends her whole life taking good care of her family. Her effort and patience in caring for Uncle is endless, she is a role model for us all.

My deepest condolences to Aunt Debbie and her family. My prayers are with you always. May God's comfort and peace be with you all.

“ Dearest 五嬪, cat, Philip, Andrew and family,

We are terribly sorry to hear about the passing of uncle William. Our heartfelt condolences go out to you and your family. I will surely miss the presence of a truly lovable and kind uncle.

I remember he always liked to play with me when I was very young at 東方台。 He was humorous and fun.

I know that what you are going through right now is very difficult, may our condolences bring you peace during this painful time.

“ I always enjoyed it when Uncle William would visit us in L.A. but I will always remember what a great host he was when my dad, mom and I came to visit Australia for Cat's wedding. It was my 1st time there and he wanted to show us all the different parts of Sydney and even arranged a tour for us to go to Canberra. I had always hoped to come back to visit him and bring my husband and daughter to meet him. I am saddened that we won't get to see him again here on earth. His memory will live on in our hearts. Rest in peace, dear uncle.

*With love from your American niece,

“ Dear Auntie Debbie, Catrina, Philip, Andrew, and families.

I'm deeply sorry to hear about Uncle William's passing. Words cannot express the sadness in my heart. Uncle William is a kind, gentle, loving, and generous man. I have a lot of respect for him.

I still remember years ago when I was still in Hong Kong, he bought me a brand new AIWA stereo system. I thought he was the coolest uncle since he was a top executive in the AIWA company in Australia, and knew a lot about stereos and sound system. I also remember he taught me how to iron my shirts when I was young. Since we had helpers at home growing up, I never knew how to iron a shirt. He saw me struggling to get my shirts ironed, so he came to my rescue and said "let me show you how to do it!" I also recall many of his funny jokes and words of wisdom. He will forever be missed and remembered.

Please accept my heartfelt condolences. May our Lord Jesus give you comfort, peace, and love!

*With prayers and sympathy,
Ken (Bo Bo)*
