“Law Sir's gentle smile and bow tie have deeply engraved in my heart..... This is my prayer for the family....

Our heavenly Father, Our majestic king of kings, You are our shepherd, we shall not be in want.

We come together to remember and farewell Belinda's dear husband, Anna and Samuel's father, and our dear pastor, friend and brother, Mr Law Yip Wah. You have rested him from his toils and he is with you in heaven.

We thank you for the wonderful life of Law Sir. Thank you for giving him a loving wife, two upright children, a son in law and two adorable grand-children, a god-fearing family.

Thank you for all the grace and mercy you have shown Law Sir for the past many years. Above all, thank you for giving him the opportunity to accept Christ as his personal Saviour and Lord.

We thank you for Law Sir's gentle care that has touched so many of us. He was indeed a blessing to us and a remarkable companion on our earthly pilgrimage.

Lord Jesus, in your boundless compassion, console us who mourn, give us faith to see in death the gate of eternal life, so that in quiet confidence we may continue our course on earth.

Holy Spirit, grant salvation to every one of us through Christ so we might have hope and assurance that one day, we will reunite with Law Sir again upon Christ's return.

Comfort us, especially Law Sir's family and let us hear the voice from heaven that says, "Blessed is brother Law Yip Wah who die in the Lord." Yes indeed, Law Sir has rested from his labour and his deeds will follow him.

Finally, we commit Law Sir's earthly body to the ground, earth to earth, ashes to ashes and dust to dust; in sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life.

In the name of Jesus Christ, the ultimate victor and conqueror of death we pray. Amen

“ Once a pastor always a pastor. Although he left CCC three years earlier, Law Sir and Belinda still came to visit my dying father in 2013. It saddens us that we could not visit Law Sir In his last days because of Covid. He will always remain in our hearts. Till we meet again in God’s kingdom.

“ Uncle Yip,

Thank you for the warmth and gentleness you have brought to brothers and sisters at CABC Thornleigh during and after your time worshipping there. Both you and Aunty Belinda have been a great blessing to us.

Our sister Sally Cheung remembers you being such a good teacher to Ron.

Derek Ho remembered your service as a church secretary and preaching in the Cantonese congregation

Annie and Stephen Wong have been thankful for receiving Belinda and your loving kindness for the last two decades.

I still remember conversations about tennis and swimming, and how active you were in life and ministry. He was a man of few, but choice words.

We pray for Belinda, Anna, Samuel and the family during this time of grief. We also pray that the Lord's grace be shown upon them as they look forward to seeing you again when Christ returns to reunite all who are in Him.

*Blessings in God's rest,
Ben*

“ In remembrance of Law Sir

He touched us by his smiling face.

He touched us by his gentle voice.

He touched us not only by his sermons, but also by his deeds.

He touched us in so many ways that cannot be described.

He was an exemplary servant of the Lord.

We thank Lord for having Law Sir in our lives.

“ Messenger of God - Yip Wah Law

Yip Wah always says what God inspires him to say.

We who are members of the Evergreen fellowship learned about it ever since he joined a few years ago. He always smiled but did not say much. Yet when he said something it would be concise and not necessarily wrap with nice words ahead of the point.

Perhaps with the bow tie that he usually wore, it gave an impression that he brought us messages, messages from God through him.

Even on 10 September shortly after what would be his last medical procedure, he reminded our group that we should seek God's way and not ask for what we desire. He quoted Philippians 1:21 that: "For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain."

And he continued to say: "The life that I live, I live for Christ, who gave himself up for me".

It was his last message he brought for us that would be well remembered.

“ We miss Law Sir.

He has blessed us with a strong modelling of God's love, care and generosity towards our family.

Although we knew him for no more than a decade, he reaches out to us with care and love with his constant prayers and over the many dining invites at his home. His kindness, gentleness and generosity warm our hearts deeply.

As he now enjoys peace and goes ahead of us to be with our heavenly father, we look forward to our heavenly reunion with him in the new creation as we hold onto the same hope as he has.

Dear Belinda and family,

Our sorrowful hearts join you in your grievances over the loss of Law Sir.

May God our master comforter hear our prayers for you during this difficult time.

“ *In remembering of brother Yip Wah
We all called him Law sir, the brother wore his Sunday best showing deep love and respect to God. Same was his say grace to God always proper and genuine.He tended his garden filled with fragrant flowers as God had tended his life.*

Gentle outward but warm and firey inside defending God's word with all his might.

With love and service he led his family welcome those in Christ.

Now he takes a little rest, waiting to return with his

Saviour from high.

We thank God for having Law sir in our lives

“ Brother Yip Wah was such a gentle soul who we will greatly missed. He was a faithful servant of God and always zealous in sharing God’s word to people around him.

Our favourite memory of Yip Wah is he always dressed up and wear a bow tie when attending church services...what a great gesture to honour God!

Yip Wah is now relieved from his pain and rested peacefully in God’s loving care.

Dear Belinda, please accept our most heartfelt sympathies for your loss. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this difficult time. Take care!

“ Yip-Wah gave us the image of a gentleman, wearing suit with bow tie and always with a smiling face.

Yip-Wah had great faith in God. He knew the love of God and showed his love and care to brothers and sisters by praying for illnesses, especially our elderly in Evergreen Fellowship. He is a prayer warrior.

Yip-Wah finished his journey on earth and is now rest in peace in the arms of our Heavenly Father.

He will be sadly missed.

“ *Dearest Belinda and family,
My very deepest sympathies to you on the sad passing of beloved Yip Wah. He will always be remembered for his gentleness and generosity, and the two of you together as a close loving couple who showed great kindness to all, myself very much included. I thank you both. May Yip Wah now be at peace and may you find strength for the difficult time of loss ahead, surrounded by the support of family and close friends, of which I am one.*

“ Yip Wah is a true gentleman and a faithful servant of God. He served more than people realised. He cared for and helped church members but always insisted to remain anonymous. He always encouraged us meditating God's Words rather than just reading reference material. His bow ties, gentle voice and warm smile will always be remembered. Above all, his holding of Belinda's hand when they came to church on Sundays.

業華弟兄及他親愛的太太除了是我們教會恩愛夫妻典範外。在他們生命中充份彰顯出基督的愛，他們愛主、愛人、愛弟兄姊妹。他們忠心服侍主，關懷弟兄姊妹們。是我們基督徒的好榜樣！

記得幾年前，在一次星期日崇拜的茶點時間中，有一對新來我們教會的夫婦，他們因為工作關係從墨爾本搬遷來雪梨定居。當時業華夫婦與他們交談以表歡迎。那對夫婦說他們在雪梨地方沒有親人，業華夫婦便很親切地告訴他們，業華夫婦在教會便是他們的親人了，還給了通訊電話他們，有需要便可與他們聯絡云云……

當時我也在旁閒談，我心中對業華夫婦的愛心非常受感動呢！

業華夫婦對我們弟兄姊妹關係非常熱情及關懷。💎💎💎們夫婦也很好客，時常都有邀請弟兄姊妹到他們家中作客午餐或下午茶，目的是能夠互相更好的認識。我們也是多次被邀請的夫婦呢！

業華弟兄是我們主內弟兄姊妹永遠懷念的親愛弟兄！

Law Sir is a very kind and passionate person. He is also a very knowledgeable, faithful and loving servant of our Lord. He cares for others, even when he is very sick. We never hear any words of complaint from him, despite his continuous and severe battles with cancer. Even in the very last days of his battle, he still has great spirits and a faithful heart to our Lord.

He respects our Lord. He always dresses with nice suits and matching bow ties to attend Sunday worship at church. He always displays a radiant smile when encouraging people. He is a persistent and faithful Christian. He will irresistibly point out other people's mistakes when they misinterpret God's words in the Bible.

We will remember him for all the good deeds that he has done in our nurture group and our Church. We thank God to place Law Sir & Belinda in the same nurture group with us so that we can learn from him how to act as a true Christian for the past few years.

We strongly believe that Law Sir is now having a Good rest with our Holy Father and Son in Heaven.

We miss him.
