“ Rest In Peace. Thank you so very much for all you taught me, the respect and admiration I have for you is indescribable. I will forever remember my days as a student midwife listening for your heels coming to check or assess me, and as a midwife receiving your support and guidance.

Most recently as a teacher and your colleague feeling humbled by your your words of praise and encouragement, your support was amazing for my confidence. Thank you so much, I am very sorry I wasn't there to pay my respects to you I have only learnt of your passing this week.

God bless and protect you always

“ Dearest Aunty Yoong,

You have the most astonishing and vivid memories of anyone I know - from listening to your nursing/midwife stories and when you used to take Wei Yee and Callie out when they were kids. Sometimes I can't even recall what I did yesterday, but I do recall our first meeting. It was at a cafe in Parramatta and you gave me a red packet as well. Also I got in trouble for calling you Aunty Doris (that's Wei Yee's fault!).

I didn't know what to expect from this Aunty who was always busy and away from home a lot of the time, but like with all of Wei Yee's Aunty's, you were just as kind and endearing (who also liked to wear bright and auspicious colours!)

My fondest memory was at our wedding tea ceremony and I will be forever grateful for bestowing those traditions upon us and I would like to thank you again for your time and efforts on our special day. For someone like me who is completely detached and unaware of all the traditions and customs (relying on google), this meant a lot and hopefully one day we can uphold those same traditions.

I am sorry I couldn't visit as much as I would like have during past few weeks, but I would like to thank you for taking the time to meet my family and always asking for they are. y family sends their regards and well wishes.

I hope you are now at peace and overseeing everyone from above.

We will all miss you.

“ Thank you so much for everything you have ever done for Callie and I as well as everyone blessed enough to have crossed paths with you. We have so many fond and vivid memories of the time we spent with you from our time together in Granville, to allowing us to play with your make-up as kids, to organising our first and only McDonald's birthday party and more recently conducting our wedding tea ceremony.

You were a role model of feminine strength, courage and independence, qualities you carried through right until the end. I hope we can continue to make us proud of all that you have taught us.

We love you so much but we know you are now in a much better place (hopefully with lots of your favourite noodles too). You need not worry about us, we promise to look after each other and the family for you.

“ EVERLASTING MEMORY OF MY DEAREST 雲姐💕

She is undeniably one of the warmest, kindest; sweetest & most affectionate person on this planet earth! Thanks to GOD!🙏 Her refined and cultured Personality; her jovial and gracious Nature; her warm and sincere Friendship; her kind & caring Companionship; her ever hearty & welcoming Hospitality & Generosity to her Dearest & Nearest...not forgetting her compassionate and benevolent Heart toward the sick and needy, including those in sorrows & despair...all of which are more than enough to make her such an incredibly Beautiful, Loving and Unforgettable BELOVED💕 among us. We are indeed blessed and so privileged to have her in our lives that, even the very thought of saying "Goodbye" would seem the hardest thing to do!😭

Above all that, she also holds very strong and passionate Family Values; being genuinely demonstrated in her affectionate Filial Piety, heartwarming Kindred Love and Gratefulness... alongside with her pious devotion & conviction in religious Faith. Moreover, her remarkable & admirable performance, dedication and achievements in her Professional Career would have made her the best Counselor, Mentor & even Confidante one could ever desire. Therefore, it's a great loss not just to her beloved kinfolks alone but to the entire community around her to be sure...particularly those folks who have, at one time or another been cared for and blessed by her. We all gonna miss our dear sister Young Yin💕 terribly for sure but she will live in our hearts forevermore!💕

Nevertheless, we thank our Faithful Almighty GOD that sister Yoong's life has been fruitfully, meaningfully and beautifully lived...as she consistently burns out her candle to light up others.🕯 Hence, we believe she has been truly Blessed by being a great Blessing to others always because GOD is Righteous! Amen!😊

Therefore, I pray solemnly that her Kind and Beautiful Soul will REST IN ETERNAL PEACE...🙏 Goodbye dear sister in law...I LOVE YOU!😊

*My Prayer for everyone belonging to 雲姐 beloved Family:💕
May our Loving Father GOD soothe and comfort your grieving hearts, grant you Grace and Peace as HE delivers you from all sorrows and pain...warming your hearts with Compassion and most importantly, drawing you close to the Hope of ETERNAL LIFE in HIS Heavenly Kingdom. Amen! 🙏*

“ Auntie Doris,

Thank you for all the love, compassion, guidance and kindness that you have showered upon me.

A life taken too soon.

Words cannot describe the sadness in my heart.

I didn't get to see you before you left.

I didn't get to say goodbye.

I didn't get to hug you one last time.

If I could see you one more time, I would say I miss you and goodbye but I am so glad to have you in my life.

I will always remember you Auntie Doris.

Forever in my heart till we meet again.

Fern.

“ 2 Sundays ago, we chatted for half an hour. You enjoyed your lemonade icypole, as we endured through the Sydney summer heat. You hugged my 2 children , commenting how much they have grown. You showed me your lovely God granddaughter's videos, you adored her very much.

We look forward to celebrate my dad's and your birthday together each and every year for the past 19 years. What's the chance of two people having the same birthday, seriously, I mean the same day, month, year (only 20mins difference i think) to meet in Sydney through mum's sister Therese and mum's colleague who is your sister Mimi, and was born in the same country too?! Hence, we have ever since called you Kan Ku Che(KKC = God Aunt) , and Kan Ku Po (KKP = God Great Aunt) , and to my parents, their sister Kan Mei Mei.

You showered us with gifts, food, hospitality and most importantly, unconditional love. You volunteered and served with your heart in the Nan Tien temple, and you dedicated your expertise to educate the future in midwifery nursing (not to mention advising me on pregnancy, childbirth and raising children). Bubbly and chatty, my children especially Gracelyn who is now 11 years old has fond memories of playing hide and seek with you in your house.

Thank you our dear Kan Mei Mei, KKC and KKP for your genuineness and care. Now you are in God's care , no more pain and hardships. We will miss you tremendously especially at dad's next birthday, but we know we will always feel your everlasting presence. Thank you for being part of our family. We shall cherish our memories together.

Love you Miss you Lots

“ Thank you Doris for your love & friendship. You embraced us, the Tay sisters & their families with your unselfish love & care. I met you the day you arrived in Sydney from England. I thought you were an English mixed blood Malaysian, your complexion was like an English rose, so rosy & fair. Instantly you were the life of the party. Warm & & chatty.

During our over 40 years of friendship, you used to bring your 2 little nieces to our house. Our friendship grew even closer when you joined me in Shanghai in 2009 to be Parkway Health, China Vice President of Nursing. It was during this time & working with you, I got to know the other professional side of you. You brought to our Chinese nurses professionalism, you taught them & share with them your years of skills (you once told us quote ‘ I could instruct a nurse by telephone how to deliver a baby ‘ unquote.) . Tou gave the nurses here guidance, exposure to international standard of nursing. Your nurses love you & respect you. As a colleague I see a very intelligent, smart, so knowledgeable, professional woman of sunstance.

You always have time for everybody. Your family, your friends giving your individed attention & unselfish love. Your charity work in the Buddhist temples, even in Shanghai, during your off days you would be traveling with different Buddhist groups visiting & praying. We always used to laugh at you when being a vegetarian, you could eat noodles cooked in chicken broth as long as you didn't eat the meat. After several times, we realised you just didn't want to make a fuss & make your hostess uncomfortable. You just get on with it. Another act of being humble & sincerity.

Even when you were in pain, going through your chemo, every time when I WhatsApp you, you would always asked about so & so, to give your love & putting emoji of love & kisses.

Doris, you have left a legacy behind that will be here for a lifetime. The Tay sisters especially Aim & her family will miss you terribly & can only console ourselves to be very fortunate to have met you & honour that you have embraced us to your life.

You will be painfully missed. It's God's turn to enjoy you fully

“ A beloved aunt, she was a loving, helpful and caring person, always lightened up the room with her presence and humour. She had a good heart and a kind soul, she was someone that brings laughter and happiness to others. She took the time and effort to visit her grandnieces, grandnephews and nieces regularly. She had given them so much guidance, advice and support over the years. She would share her experiences with them, instill good values into them and teach them how to be a better person.

“ Dearest AD, we have moved back to Sydney only just a few days after you passed. Although we didn't get to catch-up, I know you are at a better place. I will always remember how generous, kind and intelligent you were. And the strength and determination you showed in your messages in the past two years were truly amazing. The kids still have all the gifts you bought them and I will also remember the warm hugs you always gave us. You will be missed. Xoxo

“ Dearest Doris,
It was a privilege to have known you for over 30 years. You were such a caring, kind and generous friend. You came to our place to take care of me when I was unwell. You offered us the use of your car when we didn't have one. You always had time to enquire about our health and well-being. We will miss you dearly; you were a truly remarkable person, so cheerful and with an amazingly positive outlook in life.

You will always remain in our hearts, consciousness and memories.

“ Yoong had been a great resource to BLIA and a true friend to us.

Yoong established the Living Care Group for BLIA and was the first President of LCG. Her compassion and loving care were shared by the local community.

As a friend, Yoong's love was liked an elder sister to me, her caring, kindness will be always remembered.
