“ I don't know how to hide my pain and sorrow from the lost of my dearest Uncle Raymond. The days that we lived together are still fresh in my mind. It seems all happened yesterday. I really hope it could happen again. Your advice and encouragement gave confidence and drive. I know it is too late to tell you I always treat you as my loving father. I deeply believe you are now resting at God's garden where there is no suffering but full of joy and laughter. I miss you very much□□□

YM, in retrospect, I saw u moved through life w/ mercy, love, care & blessings from God. U r one of those with a big heart which shows in ur genuine smile (Karen picked a nice photo). I respect you & love you dearly. You are faithful to your wife & together have been blessed to raise up 3 fine adults. leaving us in your sleep let us know u walked into the arms of God & He welcomed you with a warm embrace. The welcome party includes everyone Karen mentioned plus my dearest brother, Bosco & the Kwoks, Mom's family. What a joyful reunion! RIP!❤️

“ I am grateful to have had a brother like Y. M. He was the quintessential success story of an entrepreneur, a father, and a husband. He and Virginia were a perfect couple. His passing has deeply touched me. So, my dear brother, rest and be in peace. Our memories will always be in our hearts.
